

If you said the Prayer of Rededication to the Lord from the bottom of your heart, we rejoice with you, because you are now back in His loving arms.

WHAT NEXT?

Start attending church again, and plan to attend regularly. It will also be helpful to join a prayer group. Read your Bible daily, and commit to a lifestyle of holiness. Remain determined not to ever stray again. Avoid people, places, and things that can easily lure you back to sin; and associate with committed believers who will support you on your Christian journey. Have you been rejected by other believers because you backslid? Have you been labeled a sinner in your community? Are you now deeply sorry for your sins, but feel that you are no longer worthy of having a relationship with God? Be of good cheer, beloved. Satan wants you to feel unworthy of God's love. He wants you to believe that God is unhappy with you, even when you are truly sorry for your sins. The truth is that God knows how sorry you are, and is waiting to have you back in His loving arms. He is delighted to forgive us when we go astray but make our way back to Him (1 John 1:9).

No one who loves God will be separated from Him, except by choice. The parable of the prodigal son (Luke 15:11-32) portrays His willingness to forgive and restore those who wander away from Him, but truly repent. He will not shut out any child of His who still desires to have a relationship with Him. His desire is to have you return to Him; not wishing that you perish, but have eternal life (2 Peter 3:9). will welcome you back as though you never left Him, no matter how far you have strayed. The danger is, remaining in your backslidden state and failing to take steps to reconcile with Him. Approach His throne of grace now, and confidently rededicate your life to Him with a heart of repentance. Receive the Lord's tender mercy today!

HOW TO REDEDICATE YOUR LIFE TO THE LORD TODAY

The Bible says if we confess our sins to God, He is faithful and just to forgive, and cleanse us from all unrighteousness (1 John 1:9).

1. Admit that you have sinned.
2. Be willing to turn away from your sins,
